Ward Priest met with a painful accident yesterday by having his foot crushed by a falling rock in the mine in which he was working. Dr. Good-fellow dressed the injured member and Ward will be able to dance in a few weeks.

We would like to say one word to our young bloods: Do you want to get solid with your best girl? If you do, and have any sort of style about you, give her a coronet some evening. The stern parents will appreciate your efforts and relent, the dog will smile at you and the girl—well, if you don't think the pearly gates of paradise have opened and welcomed you into realms of eternal bliss you had better engage a small boy to sit on you. One of our young men, who had tried every other means to win the choice of his soul, was giving up in despair when he thought of a coronet. He tried it. The happy day has been reached and the young man prays night and day for the signature of maid.

Last Sunday's Picnic.

A picnic party of about twenty ladies and gentlemen went to the Dragons last Sunday. They stopped at Tweed's ranch, about two miles from Cochise Stronghold, and visited that celebrated locality. It is reported that the ladies were very timorous while viewing the scene of battles of a few years ago, and expected at any moment to hear the war cry or to see dusky men of the mountains appear from behind the rocks. After returning to the ranch they dined and wined and danced. The lemonade was pronounced excellent, until the party learned how it was made. It wasn't so good then. The party was very fortunate and met with no bears, elephants, snakes, or mishaps of any kind and those among the party who were on the trail of wild-eyed adventures returned home disappointed. There is considerable mysterious talk of the Huachucas some time during the latter part of this month, and such expressions as, "Oh, he's just the nicest fellow," "I've got my girl, solid," "Why, cert," "About six dozen," etc., can be heard.

Next Thursday Night's Entertainment.

Next Thursday evening one of the best entertainments that Tombstone has ever witnessed will appear at Schieffelin Hall under the management of our popular amusement-giver, Joe Bignon. The troupe will arrive on the day of the entertainment and will be assisted by the entire Elite Theater company. The troupe to arrive is known as the "Dryden and Mitchell Combination," and is highly spoken of by those who have witnessed their performances. The ladies of the troupe are Miss Alice Clark and Miss Hattie Ainsley, who are said to be very fine performers. Everybody knows that Joe always gives first-class entertainments in Schieffelin Hall and this one will surpass anything of the kind ever given by him in this city. Show your appreciation of home enterprise and energy and lend your presence to this occasion. Reserved seats can be secured at Stevenson & Walker's cigar store, without extra charge, and those desiring good seats should secure them early.

The Iron Duke to His Soldiers.

"Do your duty," were the words of Lord Wellington to his soldiers just before the battle of Waterloo and history tells us how well they obeyed. The same advice might properly be given to every living man at this time. There are many men who would do their whole duty in time of war or great need, but when there is no such great occasion, neglect their plain simple duties to their God, their families and themselves. It is not for want of honor nor because they do not love their families, but from pure neglect; as an instance, statistics compiled by the national authorities show that more deaths result from bowel complaints than any other one cause, except consumption, yet not more than one family in six are provided with medicines that will relieve or cure the diseases. It is the duty of every man to protect their families, and they are certainly at least, guilty of criminal carelessness if they neglect to do so. The best remedy there is for the purpose only costs but 25 cents. The article we refer to is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. It is a certain cure for cramps, colic, cholera morbus, dysentery, diarrhea, bloody flux, cholera infantum, and bowel complaint in all its forms. For sale by H. J. Peto.

Idleness is a Dangerous Fault

In the kidneys. When inactive they speedily fall into despair. Those obstinate and fatal maladies, Bright's disease and diabetes, ensue with terrible certainty upon the inaction of the organs affected. Catarrh of the bladder, enuresis, gravel and stranguy are also to be apprehended from a partial paralysis of the bladder, of which weakness and sluggishness are the causes. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a fine tonic and promoter of activity for the renal organs, and one which can be relied upon to afford them the requisite stimulus without exciting them—an effect to be feared from the unmedicated alcoholic excitant of commerce. A further beneficent effect of the Bitters, by renewing activity of the kidneys, is to enable them to drain from the blood in its passage through them, impurities productive of rheumatism and dropsy. Nervousness, fever and ague, constipation and dyspepsia are conquered by the Bitters.

Tourists.

Whether on pleasure bent or business should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectually on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.
